Gentlemen:

Further to feedback we have been receiving from both social and conventional media, the Board is impelled to ask you to attend² a conference scheduled for 10 November 2016, 2:00 p.m. at the MTRCB Adjudication Room in regard to the above-captioned episodes.

The 25 October 2016 episode includes a purportedly daring love-making scene inside a motor vehicle, which some audiences found to be unfit for television (despite its "SPG" advisory). As regards the 26 October 2016 episode, we received feedback as to the casual use of the words "sex lang yan” without reference to, or in disregard of, the institution of marriage. The 27 and 28 October 2016 episodes, upon the other hand, contain allegedly “sexually teasing” as well as more outrightly sexually-charged bath-related scenes (bearing only a “PG” [Parental Guidance] advisory) -- both of which were found by some audiences as inappropriate for television.

With the above, considering that “PG” and “SPG” ratings still admit the reality of having young audiences, the Board shall expect you to present your side at the said conference which shall be before a Committee particularly designated for the matter.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

EUGENIO H. VILLAREAL

Chairperson
